

Co-funded by the European Union

"This project is funded with the support of the European Commission. The information and views set out in this document are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the official opinion of the European Commission. Neither the European Union institutions nor any person acting on their behalf may be held responsible for the use which may be made of the information contained therein."

4th Newsletter RYTA

RYTA PROJECT UPDATES: RECENT HIGHLIGHTS

THE RYTA PROJECT IN TUNIS

PROJECT TOPIC

The RYTA (Rural Youth Transnational Activities) project held in Tunis focused on empowering rural youth through skill development, intercultural learning, and collaboration. The initiative aimed to equip participants with the tools needed to tackle challenges in their local communities while fostering a sense of global citizenship.

MAIN DISCUSSIONS

Rural Youth Challenges: Barriers like limited access to education, jobs, and infrastructure.

Global Collaboration: Strengthening cross-country partnerships for shared solutions.

Community Innovation: Implementing creative, rural-specific solutions.

CHECK OUR WEBSITE RYTASPACE.EU

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

- Participants engaged in dynamic workshops to develop leadership and project management skills.
- Group activities emphasized teamwork, critical thinking, and resilience-building.
- Cultural exchange sessions provided a platform for participants to share their unique traditions and experiences, enriching mutual understanding.

MEETINGS WITH POLICY MAKERS

The October 1st RYTA meeting focused on rural youth empowerment, tackling challenges, fostering collaboration, and developing innovative solutions through workshops and discussions.

On October 2, RYTA hosted its 2nd National Trainings, focusing on youth leadership and innovation through workshops, expert sessions, and networking. The event inspired participants to drive community change.

On October 3, RYTA held its 3rd National Trainings, focusing on youth empowerment through workshops, expert sessions, and networking, inspiring community initiatives.

On November 13, RYTA hosted its Transnational Mobility Program, fostering cross-border collaboration through workshops and cultural exchanges.

Subscribe to explore with us!

Rytaspace.eu

Rytagproject